PERRY PATERT MEAT-CUTTER. - This machine, the invention of M. J. G. Pero, of South Kingstown, R. I., is rapid. ly coming into general, use, and taking the place of all other Muchines, hitherto used for the purposes for which this is designed. The Machine is intended for cutting ment, suet, apples, feed for cattle, &c. It chops the materials for pies, and mixes all the ingredients well it does the same also for sausages and fills thein. The superiority of this. Mathine over all others is that it cuts the Mont, &c. very smoothly and does not bruiso; tear or much it is the case with all other Machines now in use. It cute the mest, &c., whether fat, or lean, dry or wel, smoothly and cheanly, and discharges itself without clogging the Muchine, or any part of it, in the slightest degree. They are being used all uver the United States; they are afterded at so low a price, that they are within the reach of every one, and no farmer should be willhout one. The Machine has received the Promium at all the Fairs where it has been exhibited; those who purclinse those Machines will not be disappointed; one of them will cut and mince from 60 pounds to 600 pounds of ment per day, according to the steadiness with which it is worked All orders sent to the Inventor, Mr. Perry, will be promptly attended to.

А ТВЕАТИЕ ОН ЕНВІЛНИ РИКСТОА rion; designed for letter-writers, anthors, printers and correctors of the Press; and for the use of Schools and Academics. Willian Appendix, containing a list of abbreviations, hints on proof-reading, &c. By John Wilson, 21 School street, Boston, Published by the author, 1850.

Such is the little of a very beautifully printed work of 200 pages on this very iniportant subject. But few persons, e ven those who, write regularly for the press, know how to punctuate correctly and many authors write page after page, and scarcely put a stop of any kind in their MSS. The compositor, therefore is necessilated to punctuate as he sets the type, and this makes his duty much more ardnous. Unless printed matter is correctly punctuated, the sense is often obscore, and sometimes entirely desgroved; lience the necessity of all perne, who write for publication, knowing how to puncturite accurately. It is a yely easy matter to learn 5 and the whole system is so simply and thoroughly explained in this book of Mr. Wilson's, that any one may clearly comprehend the whole system of punctuation, by a careful pertial and study of this book.-We warmly recommend it to all persons, because it is important to have a friendly or business letter, even properly purcusated, and in this book all necest may be liad at the bookstore of W.

DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,

Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, AT THE GREMAN MEDICINE STORE, 120 Arch Street, Philographia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled—if equalled—by any other preparation in the United States, as the cross attest, in using eases after skilled physicians had failed.

These Bitters are werthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the restification of diseases of the Lives and lesser glands, essertising the most scarching powers in weakness and affections of the diseases.

"We have emiliamly refusine litran recommending to the public any of the various Patent Medicines of the public any of the various Patent Medicines of the public any of the various Patent Medicines of the day, task as theroughly convinced of their value. Among those we consider wanthy of notice is the Garman Betters, invaned by Dr. Hoddand, and prepared by Dr. Jackson, in Phila delphia. One instance is perticular, in which the superior virtues of this lightine has litera testal, has fallen under our observation. During the last sommer, as and Mr. Alurdana Cashell, of this country, was very seriously affiliated with Liver Complaint, and after trying in vain various rane alias, he purchased a batter of the Birers, and after axing it, was so much relieved of his distressing mability, that he produced another batter, and it restored venture to be challed." "We believe Dr. C. M. Jackson's 'Roofmed's German Bitters,' to be a most excellent medicine, and one that should be highly pepular in these days of Temperance—for they are altogether Vegy table in their composition, without one drap of Alcoholice Spirits in them. This medicine is innocers, but strengthening in its effects, and ischily deserving of an unbounded popularity, which, when it becomes known, it will, no donkt, fully edipty."

Judge M. M. Noah said, in his "Weekly Mgssenger," January 8, 1830.

"Dr. Hosfland's German Bitters.—Here is a preparation which the leading presses in the Union appear to the uncumbines in reconfinenting, and the reason is obvious. It is used after a prescription formished by one of the most celebrated physicians of modern times—the late Dr. Christopher Willelm Hosfland, profusor to the University of Jean, private physician to the king of Pressia; and one of the greatest medical writers Gerniany has ever produced. He was emplatically the enemy of kambug, and therefore a medicine of which the was the inventor and endorser may be conditionally elied in the specially recommended it in Liver Compitant, Dyspepsia, Debility, Vertigo, Actility of the Stomach, Constipation, and all complaints arising from a disordered southin of the stomach, the liver and the intestines.
